Dear ICPCC Member

It hardly seems possible that almost three years have passed since our last exceptional Congress in Rotarua, New Zealand.

But, as we know, time continues to move on, and I am pleased to report that planning is progressing well for the next ICPCC gathering, 15-21 October 2015. The hosts for the meeting are planning to enable you to register on-line, beginning this coming mid-October. I encourage you to begin making your arrangements accordingly. The website is: www.icpcc2015.org.

The planners are now receiving proposals for those of you who would like to present a workshop at the Congress (Presented a workshop in San Francisco, 2015; wouldn't that look nice on your curriculum vitae!). The theme for the Congress, Care in Our Global Village, will be developed around three components: Interfaith, Interculture and Virtual Reality relationships. So there is a good deal of room for creativity.

The coordinators for the workshop schedule are: Mirjam Berger (mirjam.berger@christushealth.org), and Janet Barriger (JanetBarriger@Centura.Org). Time is getting short, and they would like to receive your workshop proposal by 31 July. The workshops are invariably one of the favorites of the Congress, as we all learn together.

May you have a relaxing and renewing summer, and I look forward to seeing you in San Francisco.
