

English Program
The 3rd Czech – Slovak Ecumenical Consultation of Healthcare Chaplains and Pastoral Workers
Formation – education meeting
21. – 24. 9. 2007 Vranov u Brna
Under the auspices of Department of Oncology,
First Faculty of Medicine, General Teaching Hospital, Praha

Karel Herbst, Auxiliary Bishop of Prague wishes this meeting success quoting the words of Jesus:

Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me.

Topic: Palliative Care and Quality of Life

Friday September 21

12:00 Lunch, informal social gathering

18:00 Introduction

Prof. Jan Čáp, General Teaching Hospital, Hradec Králové

Dr. Marie Opatrná, Praha

Rev. Leo Zerhau, Brno

Rev. Juraj Jendrejovský, Slovak Republic

20:00 Lectures

Rev. Juraj Jendrejovský The Ethics of Spiritual Care in a Hospital

Markéta Čermáková Healthcare Chaplain - Areas of Activity of Chaplaincy

Discussion

Saturday September 22

Formation program / recollection

Rev. Petr Glogar, OCD

Disease and Suffering – Can we go through?

(The process of disease and the meaning of suffering)

Sunday September 23

Morning: Sunday Liturgy

Afternoon

1st section

Markéta Čermáková Palliative Medicine - Quality of Life and Pastoral Care

Dr. Viola Svobodová View of the Need for Pastoral Care – Point of View of Lay Health Worker

Discussion and coffee break

2nd section

Rev. Leo Zerhau Reflection and conception of spiritual healthcare in Czech Republic from point of view of Catholic Church

Zita Havlenová Pastoral Care from point of view of pastoral assistant

Discussion

Dinner

Evening

Rev. Jan Zachoval Pastoral Care of the Staff

Rev. Miriam Prášilová Chaplain's Inner Growth

Dr. Marie Opatrná Chaplain – Member of Multidisciplinary Team

Discussion

Monday September 24

Dr. Marie Opatrná Pastoral Care in London Hospitals

Rev. Lydia Nadřová Pastoral Care at Department of Pediatrics - Oncology

Discussion on the theme: What should we do in the future? (View for the future)

Conclusion Marie Opatrná

Lunch

Departure

This consultation is intended for pastoral workers and healthcare chaplains.